Anti-Ragging Committee Report

Anti-Ragging Week Observed at Government College Una (12–18 August, 2025)

Una, August 18, 2025 – Government College Una successfully organized Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August, 2025, with the aim of promoting a safe and harmonious environment for all students. The week-long campaign included various awareness activities and a special closing ceremony, reaffirming the college's strong commitment to a ragging-free campus.

Activities and Competitions

The highlights of the week were a Poster-Making Competition and an Essay Writing Competition, both based on the theme Anti-Ragging. Students from different departments participated enthusiastically, creating impactful posters and thought-provoking essays. In addition, students staged a play that depicted the emotional and psychological impact of ragging, spreading a message of empathy and solidarity.

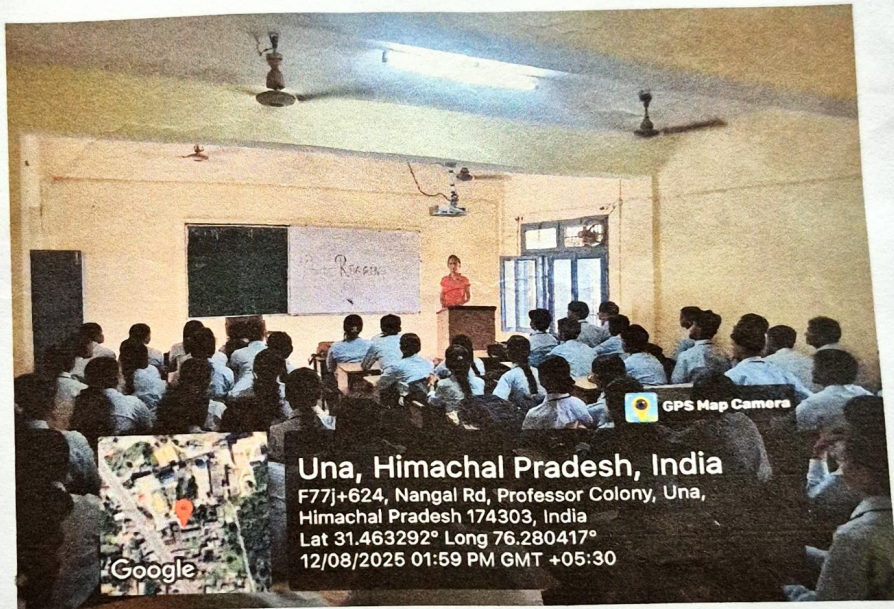

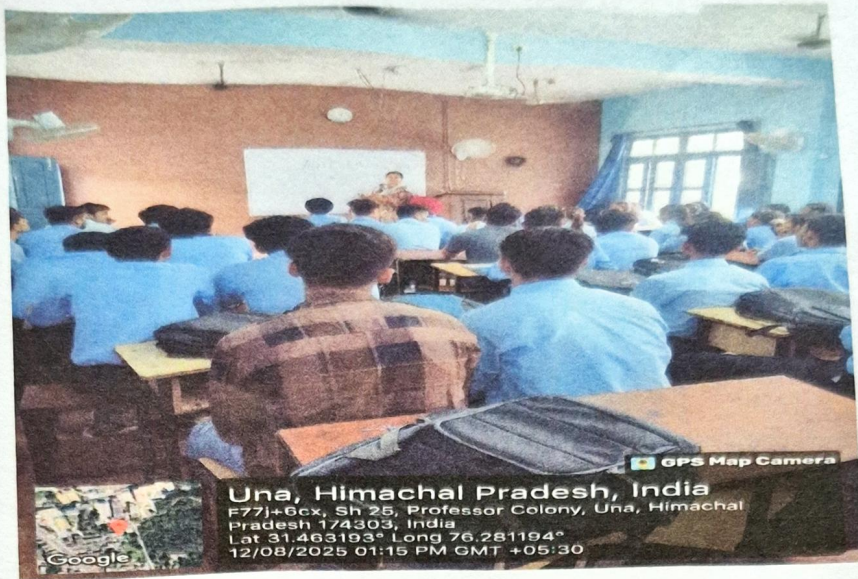

The judging panel included Prof. Ruchi Sharma, Prof. Shweta Sharma, and Prof. Anita Saini.

- In the Essay Writing Competition, Neha secured the First Prize, Shubhangi the Second Prize, and Resham Kumari the Third Prize.
- In the Poster-Making Competition, Komal won the First Prize, Sapna the Second Prize, and Muskan the Third Prize.
