

5.3. Extension activities conducted at the college, such as (i) drug abuse awareness programs, (ii) road safety awareness, (iii) blood donation camp, (iv) tree plantation, (v) hygiene drives, (vi) fire safety awareness, and (vii) physical fitness awareness by yoga in college, have significant social impact. These programs help in educating students and the local community. Overall, college extension activities promote a culture of service, community engagement, and sustainable development, benefiting both students and society at large by nurturing socially at large by nurturing socially responsible citizens and addressing local needs effectively.

5.3.

Extension activities conducted at the college, such as (i) drug abuse awareness programs, (ii) road safety awareness, (iii) blood donation camps, (iv) tree plantation, (v) hygiene drives, (vi) fire safety awareness, and (vii) physical fitness awareness through yoga in college, have a significant social impact. These programs help in educating students and the local community. These extension activities enable students to develop a civic sense, promote sustainable practices, and actively contribute to the well-being of society.

Hygiene Drive by NCC

Hygiene Drive by NCC

Environmental Awareness Program

Fire Safety Awareness Drive by NCC

Awareness Program in PwD School (Aashrye) by NCC

Road Safety Awareness Program

Blood Donation Camps

Una, Himachal Pradesh, India

Yog Divas

Mental Health Awareness Program

